The school trustees have issued a call for a special election and will submit these two questions to the voters. The reason the school trustees proposed the sale of the old school house property to the town was to secure the cash necessary to complete the unfinished rooms in the high school building without putting the same on the tax levy. The crowded condition of the rooms in use at present makes it imperative that more space of school building be available before another school year.

C. M. Thomas gave the band boys a talk Tuesday evening on co-operation and community of effort, and presented the Ashland normal question and praised the work being done by the band boys. The baseball club presented its plans and asked for co-operation and support from the band.

The band boys agreed to organize at once and to appoint a public affairs committee, to consist of all the active and associate members of the band, to handle all such public questions as should come to the band in this way. The band asks all the citizens of Talent who are willing to assist them in this way to become associate members of the organization. It is the only compact organization of the younger men of Talent, and as such is confronted by many matters of public and semi-public interest, so that the new public affairs committee has become a necessity to dispose of these matters.

30,000 VOICES!

And Many Are the Voices of Ashland People.

Thirty thousand voices! What a grand chorus! And that's the number of American men and women who are publicly praising Doan's Kidney Pills for relief from backache, kidney and bladder ills. They say it to friends. They tell it in the home papers. Ashland people are in this chorus. Here's an Ashland case: A. B. Scofield, 1087 North Main street, Ashland, Ore., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills gave me great relief from a bad attack of kidney disease. I am now free from all symptoms of the trouble. The backache and kidney weakness left me soon after I used Doan's Kidney Pills."

Mr. Scofield is only one of many Ashland people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills. If your back aches, if your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for Doan's Kidney Pills, the same that Mr. Scofield had—the remedy backed by home testimony. 50c at all stores, Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Strange to say, Archdeacon Stuck has not yet invited Doc Cook to join the society of Mt. McKinley climbers.
